

families and have subjected some of them to torture.

Despite government statements that, "The Maldives respects all religion", reports suggest the contrary.

Mr. Speaker, I urge the government of Maldives to protect the religious liberty of all of its citizens and release the individuals who have been arrested for their religious beliefs. Religious liberty should be a fundamental human right of all peoples of the world.

PROTESTING THE EXCLUSION OF DEMOCRAT MEMBERS OF CONGRESS FROM MEETING WITH COLOMBIAN PRESIDENT

(Mr. ACKERMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ACKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to bring to the attention of the House an event which I think is unwise and unprecedented.

Today, the new President of Colombia is visiting. But unlike previous visits of heads of state, only Republican Members have been invited to meet with him. In my 16 years in the House, I cannot remember a previous time when Members were excluded from such meetings based on party affiliation.

Mr. Speaker, there is no reason for our foreign policy to become so partisan that only one party is invited to meet with a visiting head of State.

We have always had an "American" foreign policy, and to indicate that this is starting to change to foreign leaders is certainly unwise and unwarranted and very, very unfortunate.

The issues to be discussed affect the interest of all Americans, not just Republican Americans. I believe, Mr. Speaker, that not allowing Democrats into the meeting today with President Pastrana makes the House look foolish in the eyes of our visitors and foreign leaders and diminishes our ability to be effective as policymakers.

Mr. Speaker, are we for the first time today going to change our policy and make foreign dignitaries choose between meeting with Democrats or Republicans, or having to come back and meet with all of us twice? It is an insult to us as Americans, as Democrats, and as representatives of the people.

AS ELECTION DAY DRAWS NEARER, TAX CUT RHETORIC GROWS

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, as we can tell from the tone of the remarks and the date on the calendar, the rhetoric grows more and more pointedly partisan in this Chamber, and I guess that is a function again of time and of what transpires.

I have listened with interest this morning to my friends on the left continue to talk as if they are the saviors of Social Security. A couple of historic points might be in order.

First of all, for purposes of full disclosure, we should point out that our friends on the liberal side of the aisle over the 40 years of time when they were in control never set aside one penny to save Social Security. Zero point zero. Zilch. Nada.

On the other hand, the new majority embraces a plan that would take in excess of $1.4 trillion and use it to save Social Security and use a relatively meager $80 billion to allow the people of the United States to keep more of their hard-earned money.

What the left really tells us, Mr. Speaker, is: No tax cuts, no time, no how.

IN TRIBUTE TO VIC FAZIO

(Ms. HARMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. HARMAN. Mr. Speaker, representing the other tough-to-hold seat in California, I know how hard the gentleman from California (Mr. FAZIO) has worked for his constituents.

I know his courage in fighting for responsible gun control; a woman's right to choose; equal treatment for all Californians, regardless of sexual orientation; and responsible campaign finance reform. And I know his incredible personal courage in returning here after the untimely death 2 years ago of his daughter, Anne.

Losing an election, which VIC never did, is hard. Losing a child is infinitely harder. Yet VIC and Judy have rebounded, and I think the perfect tribute this institution could pay to him after 20 years is to behave in a sober, bipartisan and fair fashion as we consider the very difficult matter of the President which is before us.

I am pleased to join my colleagues in commending VIC for his distinguished public career and proud to call him a friend.

VIC, best wishes to you, Judy and your family.

DEMOCRATS ATTEMPT TO SCARE SENIORS

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, the liberals are making false and misleading arguments in their opposition to the Republican tax cut proposal. Every time we hear the other side accuse Republicans of raiding the Social Security Trust Fund or stealing from the Social Security Trust Fund, they are deliberately misrepresenting the truth in order to oppose tax cuts.

Just consider this. The liberals never accuse anyone of raiding the Social Security Trust Fund whenever it comes to spending. In fact, they have proposed billions and billions of new spending without a single thought about Social Security.

It is only when Republicans want to pass tax cuts that they use a bogus argument about Social Security in order to scare seniors, just like they did for 2 years about Medicare.

Mr. Speaker, the fact is, liberals simply oppose tax cuts. The American people should know the truth. Under their definition, all spending is a raid on the Social Security Trust Fund: education, welfare, the big bureaucracy here in Washington.

But now we do have a surplus and I think, yes, we do need to save Social Security with 90 percent of the surplus. But any surplus over that should go to hard-working Americans in the form of tax relief.

THANK YOU, VIC

(Mrs. CAPPS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. CAPPS. Mr. Speaker, I speak today in tribute to Congressman VIC FAZIO, one of the finest individuals I have ever known, a public servant who truly exemplifies the idea of "citizen representative," a close friend and political mentor of mine and of my husband Walter.

Mr. Speaker, I will never forget the support and assistance he gave me and my family and staff after Walter's death. He is successful as a Congressman because, although a proud Democrat, he has the ability to work in a bipartisan manner. He is a wonderful Caucus Chair, because, again, he is a voice for unity and consensus within our party.

Mr. Speaker, he will be missed by his constituents and by us all, and he will always be my friend. I say to the gentleman, "Thank you, VIC."

FAST TRACK SHOULD BE PASSED

(Mr. NETHERCUTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NETHERCUTT. Mr. Speaker, American farmers are facing a huge challenge of low commodity prices and unfair competition from foreign governments. Tomorrow, Congress will take up the issue of fast track authority for this administration. Even though I have serious questions about giving this administration any authority on trade issues, considering its record, I do support fast track authority because of the very important part of the bill that assures agriculture full participation in trade negotiations.

Mr. Speaker, by this provision, trade agreements reached will be agriculture-sensitive. An agriculture representative, a trade representative, will monitor and report back to Congress whether such agreements and negotiation will help or hurt agriculture.
